Half right

YOUR ARTICLE ABOUT FILMMAKER BARBARA KOPple that mentions the new documentary Beyond JFK (ITT, April 15) was only half right.

The film was actually created, produced and directed at Oliver Stone's invite by Globalvision's executive producer, Danny Schechter (The News Dissector), the former 20/20 producer, who brought Barbara Kopple in to co-direct.

Beyond JFK: The Question of Conspiracy will have its New York premiere as a Globalvision film at the upcoming Human Rights Film Festival at the Loew's Theater at Third Avenue and 11th Street on May 10 and 17.
